The WNY Pottery Festival reserves a 10 x 10 booth space to be shared or individual booths by two young artists working seriously in clay (once chosen, artists may collaborate and plan booth share together if desired). The jury and application fee is waived for those who are selected for the 2020 show. Though there are no fees, each applicant is required to submit this application form and 5 images of their work as well as one of you at work to be juried.

Emerging artist responsibilities:

The two artists selected will be responsible for coordinating the shared 10 x 10 booth space or their own individual booths:

- 10x10 white topped tent weighed down and secured
- You must provide all your own shelving and tables.
- Booth display must be professional and match the quality of the images of work that you submitted to the show. Remember your work will be display amongst master clay artists both locally and nationally recognized. Be sure to represent yourself to the best of your ability.
- Artist must be willing to demonstrate their work. We will provide clay and the basic tools needed for hand building and throwing.
- Artist will follow all rules and regulations. To properly collect sales tax one must acquire a DBA(doing business as) and sale tax certificate.

Please list or describe your experience of working with clay. (College level or equivalent)

Where would you like to see yourself as an artist in the future?

Please read carefully all of the rules and regulations listed, sign and return it to:
